

Leading by /ig'zampəl/ ex•am•p•le [ig-zam-puh l, -zahm-]

Art Educators: This summer unite your roles as an artist and a teacher. Leading by Example is an opportunity to exhibit your artwork!

The Bernard A. Zuckerman Museum of Art and School of Art & Design at Kennesaw State University have paired up to present a juried exhibition just for art educators.

Any art teacher working with students who are 18 and under is eligible to submit artwork for consideration. This includes traditional and non-traditional K-12 teachers, community center educators, Pre-K teachers, and teaching artists. All artistic media are welcome!

For more information about submissions and the show, contact Katy Malone at (470) 578-3223 or kmalon31@kennesaw.edu.

Key Dates

Submission Deadline: Extended!
Entries must be received in full by April 27, 2018 at 5:00 p.m.

Notification of Decisions: No later than May 11, 2018.

Selected artwork will be displayed in the ZMA's Fine Arts Gallery from June 5 - July 26, 2018. We will celebrate with a reception and announce Jurors' Choice awards on Tuesday, June 5th from 6 - 8 pm.

Submissions

Entries are only accepted through the digital process. Submit up to three works of art at <https://ksucollegeofthearts.wufoo.com/forms/leading-by-example/>

Juror: Donna Krueger is the founder of dk Gallery, a trend-setting, contemporary fine art space on the Marietta Square that represents over 30 artists. Donna has a B.S. in Marketing from the University of Illinois Champaign-Urbana, and started the gallery in 2008 after a successful career in advertising. In 2011 and 2013, The Atlantan named dk Gallery as a top 20 Scene Stealer changing the conversation in the art scene in Atlanta. In 2012, Krueger was named a Points North Top 10 Savvy & Successful Woman. In 2015, she participated in the Art Leaders of Metro Atlanta program and was named a Woman of Power & Influence by The Atlantan.
